I Wasn't Expecting That – Jamie Lawson

Part A

C G
It was only a smile
Am Em
But my heart it went wild
F G C | F G |
I wasn't expecting that

Just a delicate kiss
Anyone could've missed
I wasn't expecting that

Did I misread the sign?
Your hand slipped into mine
I wasn't expecting that
You spent the night in my bed
You woke up and you said
"Well, I wasn't expecting that!"

Part B

Dm Em
I thought love wasn't meant to last
F G C | C C/B |
I thought you were just passing through
Am Em
If I ever get the nerve to ask
F G G7
What did I get right to deserve somebody like you?
I wasn't expecting that

Part A

It was only a word
It was almost misheard
I wasn't expecting that
But it came without fear
A month turned into a year
I wasn't expecting that

Part B

I thought love wasn't meant to last
Honey, I thought you were just passing through
If I ever get the nerve to ask
What did I get right to deserve somebody like you?
I wasn't expecting that

Part C

G G#dim
Oh and isn't it strange
Am
How a life can be changed
F C C/B
In the flicker of the sweetest smile
G G#dim
We were married in spring
Am
You know I wouldn't change a thing
F
Without that innocent kiss
G
What a life I'd have missed

Part A

If you'd not took a chance
On a little romance
When I wasn't expecting that
Time doesn't take long
Three kids up and gone
I wasn't expecting that

When the nurses they came
Said, "It's come back again"
I wasn't expecting that
Then you closed your eyes
You took my heart by surprise
I wasn't expecting that
